V.O.N. Ask Council To Increase Grant

By W. C. Frank

A delegation from the V. O. N. waited on the Council on Monday, asking that more consideration be given that organization next year as the task of financing at this time is most difficult as other organizations in aid of war effort, etc., increase the appeals tremendously. The members of the Council were all agreed that more assistance should be given by the municipality. The V. O. N. helps to keep down hospital costs very considerably.

The agenda of business was not as large as usual. The gravelling program has been handicapped this year on account of the large mile and half surfacing - about 15 miles - even though the government contributed 50 per cent. Then the rain which commenced in August has made construction work very difficult.

Campbell River Road at White Rock has been completed as far east as the Stayte Road. This strip farther east will have to wait till later. It will be difficult to keep a good shape this winter. There is a great amount of rain - and a bad frost would be just too bad. It was fortunate that the government came to the rescue with 50 per cent of the cost of this project, or it would not have been done this year. The reason some other work had to wait was of course on account of the tying up of the equipment on these construction jobs - the other one being on the Rose Road.

The sidewalk has had to wait until the new year. White Rock has been well served this year, and has had very fine consideration from the whole Council in trying to serve the many needs of this rapidly growing area. This municipality has lost $50,000 this year in the matter of relief grants, which would have gone into hand labour, however, perhaps we have gained in other ways with the use of machinery. The men who have worked on municipal work this last year have given very fine service and deserve our appreciation.

There is now pretty well confined to direct, as most of those on the rolls are unable to do manual labour, either through age or physical disability. The Chairman of the Relief Committee brought in a strong resolution on Monday, petitioning the governments to take immediate action to relieve this situation in the advancing of food and clothing prices whereby many who have been, through no fault of their own, compelled for years to just barely exist, while now with war prices, find themselves terribly afflicted. While some of the government officials noted "Cost of Living Bonuses" to many who are in comfortable circumstances.

The Council was unanimous in passing the resolution which will be forwarded to both governments through our local members.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Robinson were honoured on Tuesday evening at the Army & Navy hall by a surprise party on the occasion of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Tonight to the guests was made by Miss Sealbrook, Mr. Robinson proposed a toast to the boys on active service, George Robinson responded. Games and dancing followed out on an enjoyable evening. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson were recipients of many suitable gifts.

The No-Christmas-Cards-to-White-Rock-Friends idea has been enthusiastically received. Donations are already coming in. Mr. Earl Kelly gave the idea and White Rock News publicity in a recent No-Christmas-Cards News broadcast. The following are added to the list: Mr. and Mrs. Dick Steed, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hines and Ocean Park-Crescent Ladies' Circle.

Have you seen the Penny Cards for Red Cross? Look for one at your favorite shopping place and dispose of your coppers which will do your bit for relief. Better still, get one for yourself and let your family and your friends help you fill it. Ask at the Work Rooms about them.

Some White Rock donors have been sending money for the Blanket Fund to Vancouver. This makes for delay and more bookkeeping, as such monies must be returned to White Rock and re-sent from our treasury. If the donation is given directly to Mrs. Moffatt, delay and work will be saved.

The Work Room reports for September and October have been unusually good. A steady flow of work is coming in and going out. Three large shipments have been made to headquarters in these two months.

Visit the Red Cross Work Rooms and see for yourself the beautiful suits for women that have been made by Crescent, Ocean Park and our workers recently.

Outside affiliated Circles are turning in a large number of beautifully finished garments. From Sunnyside workers came in September at least 50 finished articles. The Peace Arch and Crescent-Ocean Park Circles are keeping up a high standard as to both amount and quality of work. It is impossible to acknowledge these contributions in the press but they are reported appreciatively at meetings and received with gratitude by both at the work room and at headquarters.

About 60 people gathered for the social evening in the Anglican church hall on Tuesday of this week. Wm. Hargre showed several reels of interesting movies, including White Rock May Day celebrations, Peace Arch celebration, and a travelogue of the Hope country, all filmed by Mr. Hargre. Games, dancing, a delightful supper and community singing filled out the happy evening.

Mrs. A. K. Westland and sister, Mrs. Pat Brewster, of Red Adair, were the recent visitors to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Altkon of Victoria avenue.

The Seminamoo Lodge of the L.O.L. will hold a whist drive in the Masonic hall on Monday, December 15, in aid of the Red Cross. During the evening the draw for War Savings Certificates will take place.

By Pro Rec Reporter

A special meeting was called on Thursday of the Pro Rec executive committee to deal with the question of financing the Pro Rec at the school gym. The expenses so far have not been met, so until a future date the classes will be held in the Legion hall, Monday and Thursday at 8 p.m. It is felt that better cooperation should be given to the Pro Rec, as these classes are educational and good, clean, healthy sport.

Monday night's Pro Rec was held in the Legion hall with an attendance of 68. After the exercises the women's class divided and half of them joined in with the boys' instructor to take the tumbling while the other half took dancing in the smaller room. Everything went off splendidly and it was a grand feeling to know we could pay our way. Thanks to the Legion for their cooperation.

High School News

We have had two holidays lately: the first on Friday, November 7, was for our teachers to attend the Fraser Valley Teachers' convention in Cloverdale; the second on Tuesday, November 11, was to remind us of our debt to those who fell in the first Great War.

On Monday afternoon, November 10, a general assembly of the school was called to permit all students to listen to the special Remembrance Day programme, which was broadcast over the radio.

Last Thursday, November 13, was open house day for Seminamoo High School. Over 70 visitors came to our school, looked at our Red Cross exhibit, our Library workshop, and visited the classes in operation. The most popular room after 2:30 was the Home Economics room, where delicious cookies, cakes and tea, all made by Miss Bardal's Home Economics students, were served our visitors by student servers. Mrs. Abbott, the principal's wife, and Miss Brearley presided over the urns at the central table, which was decorated with lovely autumn flowers.

We welcome Miss Sovereign and Miss Mockridge back to school after their recent illnesses.

Reeve Brown was the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Board of Trade on Tuesday evening. He gave a short history of the drying scheme in Surrey, going back to the start in 1859, when the first two dams were washed out, and how they were a benefit to the whole municipality, as the largest revenue comes from these lands. After this he gave a rambling talk on the municipality as a whole, and what had been done during the year. "The voters" had been increased by 500 this year. Previous to Mr. Brown's talk two resolutions had been passed: one to suggest to the provincial government that White Rock would be a suitable place for an airport, the other to make an effort to have a naval college established here.

The many friends of Mrs. Howie Mayers will be pleased to see her back in White Rock once more, this time to reside here permanently. Mrs. Mayers and daughter Judy have moved into the Rock home on Violet street, from their former home in Victoria. Howard Mayers is with the R.C.N.

Topic Of Meeting Lawn Bowlers Total conscription Annual Meeting

The following letter has been received by the White Rock branch Canadian Legion.

Dear Sir: The B. C. Provincial Command of the Canadian Legion, together with all the branches of the Legion across Canada, recently approached Prime Minister Mackenzie King on the most important subject of mobilization of Canada's resources for total war. I draw your attention to paragraph 2 of the brief that was presented to the Dominion Government and I would ask that your organization fully discuss the subject matter of that paragraph, and if you agree to the contents, please send a telegram or letter to your Member of Parliament in Ottawa in order that the people's representatives at the present Session of the House of Commons will get a true expression of the opinion of organizations such as yours right across Canada.

The time is ripe now while Parliament is in session. Please act immediately.

Yours sincerely,

T. A. BARNARD, President, B. C. Provincial Command.

The above letter will be discussed at a public meeting to be held in the Legion hall on Tuesday evening, November 25th, at 8 o'clock. Anyone interested may obtain copies of the brief from the Legion secretary.

The White Rock branch of the Legion of Frontiersmen celebrated their anniversary with a dinner meeting in the Masonic hall on Monday evening. An entertainment programme preceded dinner. Bill Goss, in his movie machine screened some actual pictures of World War 2. Miss Ruby Rendall catered for the dinner.

The community spirit is strong in many Fraser Valley points, but not all. Too often social work is left to a handful of energetic people, who usually have not the time to give to all they undertake, while many of those who should and could assist, sit idly by with the thought of letting the other fellow do it.

White Rock district has several organizations that are unusually active and are responsible for a great deal in community progress.

One such organization worthy of praise is the White Rock Parent-Teachers association.

Yet in this organization, like many others, a few are left to do the work of many. To function properly, the association must have a more representative membership, and the executive are now making a drive for new members. The outcome of the drive is a hoped for representative from every family in White Rock.

To better acquaint those not already members, we publish the following six points stating the objectives of the Parent-Teacher Association.

1. To promote the welfare of children and youth.
2. To raise the standards of home life.
3. To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth.
4. To enable parents and teachers to co-operate in the training of the child.
5. To understand and aid the schools and to interpret them to the public.
6. To obtain the best for each child according to his physical, mental, social and spiritual needs.

Objects of Pro Rec

These are a few of the purposes of the movement:

1. To supply useful recreation by giving the participants different activities that do them good.
  2. Give members greater agility and flexibility of joints.
  3. Make members more all-around healthy.
- The activities:
1. Fundamental exercises, a combination of Danish, Swedish, English and many other types.
  2. Mat Tumbling.
  3. Box work or vaulting horse.
  4. Passive exercises, a muscle builder.

These are the main activities, included also are folk dancing for ladies, club swinging for both sexes, weight lifting for men, jujitsu and fencing.

For the first time in several years, a public Christmas concert will be staged by the pupils of the White Rock Public School this year. This was decided at the meeting of the White Rock Parent-Teacher Association in the United Church hall on Wednesday evening, November 5. The use of the Semiahmoo High School auditorium has been secured, and while the date has not yet been set, it will probably be shortly before the school closing date.

Annual meeting of the Scout committee will be held in the Masonic hall on Friday Nov 21 at 7:30

It is particularly asked that all interested in the Scout movement should attend this meeting, parents especially are invited. The question of a Scoutmaster will be one of the main topics as well as keeping this troop in active operation.

Mrs. Steele, of Cranbrook, who has been the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sinnott for a few days returned to her home on Sunday.

Mrs. J. North left Tuesday for New Norway, to visit her daughter Mrs. A. de Roon.

The White Rock Squadron of the Legion of Frontiersmen have decided to hold their annual turkey shoot this year on Wednesday, December 17.

The shoot will be held at the Frontiersmen's rifle range on Thrift road.

This popular event, which was so successful last year, should be more so this season, as the club rooms have been enlarged, and greater shooting facilities added.

shot gun, mystery ball, as well as numbered targets for skill shooting, will be among the shooting attractions, and keen enthusiasm is anticipated.

The W. A. of the United Church have set Wednesday, November 26, as the date for their tea and sale of work in the Church hall. A feature of this sale will be a large assortment of aprons.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

FLASH PHOTOGRAPHY

Try flash pictures for new thrills in your camera hobby. One small-size flash lamp synchronized to a shutter speed of 1/100 second caught these happy youngsters coming down the stairway.

MOST amateur photographers use regular flood lamps in handy cardboard reflectors for the greater part of their indoor shooting. The flash lamp, however, has earned an important place in photography for certain types of pictures, and you have missed a lot of fun—any making of good pictures—if you haven't made flash shots. With a supply of flash lamps, a flash holder, and a reflector, you are ready for picture taking at all times. No looking for electrical outlets; no stringing of wires. Your electric current is right in your flash holder in the form of small, inexpensive batteries.

Generally speaking, there are two methods of flash shooting. To take an "open-flash" picture, place the camera on a solid support, such as a tripod, and set the shutter on "Time." The flash lamp is then inserted in the socket of a simple battery holder—the same in appearance as a pocket flashlight—with the exception of its reflector to direct the light toward the subject. To take a picture, you merely open the shutter—press a button on the battery case to flash the lamp—and close the shutter again. The second method of flash shooting is with the aid of a synchronizer, a mechanical device consisting of a battery case with reflector and a little timing mechanism which connects with the cable release or shutter release on your camera. With this type of equipment, you don't have to place your camera on a firm support and you can use the regular snapshot speeds. These are, of course, distinct advantages. As for price, good synchronizers are now on the market at very reasonable cost.

Amateur photographers may be somewhat startled to find that there are so many different types of flash lamps on the market. The most economical, however, and the most practical for average requirements are the "midgets"—about the size of a walnut—so concentrate on these to get your first experience in flash shooting. You'll find simple instructions on the cartons in which you receive your lamps.

Try some flash shots tonight. You'll get a real kick out of it. John van Gullifer

John Payne, bandleader booked for Sun Valley learns that as a publicity stunt, Berle, his press agent, has arranged to have him adopt a refugee. This turns out to be Miss Heinie, who finally wins his love after a battle with Lynn Bari for Payne's affections.

The White Rock Women's Institute will hold a whist drive in the Pier rooms, Friday, November 21, at 8 p.m. Proceeds being used to purchase wool for "V" bundles.

The Bishop And The Time Bomb

The action of the Bishop of Gimsby in holding a service at a little village church in England shortly after a time bomb had been found buried in the ground 100 yards away, became known to the Queen's Canadian Fund recently.

When the bishop arrived for the service, the church had been abandoned off with ropes, but no evacuation had been ordered. The bishop was told that people living outside the area which had been roped off would not be allowed to go into the church, but those whose houses were in the circle could attend if they wish. He consulted the rector and it was decided to hold the service. The usual hymns were sung and the bishop preached, but made no reference to the bomb.

At the Bishop's Palace, on Nov. 3, Bishop John Cody united in marriage Edith Mary, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex T. Bower, Royal avenue, and A. S. Robert Turnbull, R.C.N.R. son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Turnbull, Powell River, B.C.

The bride was given away by Mr. W. Arden, an old family friend, and wore a becoming royal blue frock with accessories in the same shade and a corsage of pink and white carnations. Mrs. R. J. Lewis attended her in mustard crepe costume with brown accessories and a corsage of house chrysanthemums.

Mr. James Kearney was best man. Following the ceremony, a small reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Arden, Carroll street. The supper table was centered with a two-tiered wedding cake and lighted by mauve tapers. Mrs. Arden received her guests in a smart navy blue suit with matching accessories and a corsage of mauve chrysanthemums.

After a short honeymoon upland and Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull will make their home in Comox.

Under the auspices of the Women's Guild of the John Buchan Memorial Church, White Rock, a St. Andrew's Night Supper will be held on Friday, November 28, at 6.30 p.m.

A short program will be presented by local talent, the chief features of which will be an address on St. Andrew by Mr. Tom Reid, M.P.

Saint Andrew has been honored in the past, and is still honored by the greatest of those National Forces that are fighting against Hitlerism and that have striven to build up what we are fighting for today. Our Christian Civilization, So His Majesty the King and Prime Minister, Mr. King, has said, Help win the war by supporting this St. Andrew's Night Supper.

Girl Guide Notes

The Girl Guides and their parents met in the Legion rooms on Monday afternoon when Mrs. Shatford, the new captain, was to be introduced. Unfortunately Mrs. Shatford was unable to be present, but the meeting had a twofold object. After tea was served, Mrs. Shatford was presented with a gift from the girls as a token of appreciation for her work with the company. The presentation was made by Patrol Leader Ethel Currie.
